There is always a possibility of changes occurring in relation to closure dates. So please consider this information as an initial guide especially during these unprecedented times when we may have further Lockdown closures during the academic year. Term dates may possibly change to accommodate such events and to reduce the disruption to pupil's education. The School reserves the right to alter the term dates as necessary to minimise the time lost due to unforeseen school closures. All staff will need to abide by such request which maybe with short or no notice. We request for the full cooperation of all staff. Any unauthorised absences during these periods will be processed in line with Staff Handbook and School Polices.
